APRIL PTA NEWS

April showers might bring May flowers in the normal world, but in the Sacajawea PTA world April showers bring the Scholastic Book Fair and the Spring Carnival. This is the buy one get one free Book Fair, we dare you to buy an uneven number of books. The Book Fair starts April 12th and on the evening of April 14th join us for Reading Night with light snacks and all kinds of reading fun. Also new this year, Grandparents Day which is also April 14th from 8:00-8:30am in the Media Center. Bring those grandparents, eat some cookies, and buy a couple of books all in one nifty event.

The Carnival is on the Way!

The Sacajawea Spring Carnival is getting closer, and officially starts May 20th. Unofficially, the Carnival has already started as your Carnival planning committee and chairs have begun to get things ready for the big day. Several coordinator spots are still open. If you have an hour or two to spare, we can find a job for you. The most needed at the moment are:

Buy-a-Bid Co-Coordinator, Concessions Co-Coordinator, Games Co-Coordinator, Signs and Decorations Coordinator, and Volunteer Co-Coordinator. If even the slightest bit interested please contact Angela Arnett at 360-571-9081 or angela_arnett@hotmail.com as soon as humanly possible. Thank you!

Attention 5th Grade Families

Tuesday April 12th at 8:30am you are invited to the media center for the royal selection and grand presentation of the 5th Grade Class Legacy Gift. Each 5th Grader will be choosing one book from the Scholastic Book Fair to donate to the school, to be read and enjoyed for all eternity, or until the book falls apart whichever comes first. The books are purchased with funds raised by the 5th Grade Committee from Dilly Bar and Popcorn, Pencil and Licorice Sales. To help out at this noble event contact sacpta@yahoo.com and thank you from the 5th Grade Committee and your Sacajawea 5th Graders.
